One-day Itinerary

Dresden & Saxon Switzerland

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

About ten million visitors a year come and see Dresden, affectionately nicknamed Saxony's »Florence on the Elbe River«, and are fascinated by its world-famous touristic attractions. Join us and explore the city and its highlights, such as the Semper Opera House, the Procession of Princes at the Church of Our Lady. And do not miss out on a visit to the Royal Palace. Heavily raided in WW II, the reconstructed palace houses the State Art Collections today. The widely famed Green Vault, the Turkish Chamber, the Grand Hall of the Armor, the Numismatic Cabinet and the Collection of Prints, Drawings and Photographs can now be found in the Palace. After that, embark on one of the steamboats of the world's oldest fleet of paddle steamers to be taken along the river from the Terrassenufer jetty to Pillnitz. Located at only 15 km away from the city center from the Saxon capital, Pillnitz Castle & Park is deemed Europe's most important chinoise palace property. The ensemble of architecture and landscaping art lies before the vineyards, harmoniously embedded in the riverscape of the Elbe River valley. From Pillnitz, you will be heading for Weesenstein Castle. The castle that has been standing high above the Mueglitz River valley for 700 years awaits you with quite a number of curiosities. Those who take an interest in labyrinthian setups or in unexpected things will always find their little adventure in the secret residence of King John. You can call it a day at the restaurant »Königliche Schlossküche« over a stein of rustic Weesenstein castle brew.

A Unique Museum Experience

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

The Dresden Royal Palace ranks among the most important palatial buildings of German Renaissance. Since 1485, Dresden has uninterruptedly been the residence of Saxon electors and kings. Today, the castle is home of the Historic Green Vault and the New Green Vault, the »Turkish Chamber«, the monumental Great Hall with the Armory, the Gallery of the Nobles and the Coin Cabinet. The guided tour starts in the Small Castle Yard of the Residential Castle, which was only reopened in 2009. Now, a transparent dome spans the historical Small Castle Yard, which had been open to the sky for centuries. Yet, it still allows to experience the various façades of the Renaissance castle yard in its entirety.
